Hotel ZaZa was the place to be on Friday night. Local celebrities including socialite and ABC's Grin & Barrett Host Angie Barrett packed the hotel and pool area to hobnob and catch a glimpse of the new Magnificent Seven ultra-luxurious suites. The requested attire, "sensual, fascinating, and fabulous," was hot, flashy, and revealing as many ladies used the warm weather as reason to show off their tans and toned bodies. There could not have been more cleavage without being completely topless. Lee Murphy turned heads in a sexy Hermes scarf top while socializing with gal pals Amy Cooke and Lauren Sullivan.

Hot in pink, Stefani McMurrey wore one of her signature rhinestone-accented hats and posed by the edge of the pool with Meredith Arnold.

Also seen at the water's edge was Mandie Green in a Mesho print dress and sexy Jimmy Choos along with the dashing Blane McMillan and April Rizo. Girl about town Katy Sevier and date Joe Rodriguez cocktailed near the martini ice bar. ZaZa spared no expense with this ice sculpture that was created to serve as the martini bar.

While a Prince look-alike lip synched from the roof top, party girl Kimi Kilpatrick complimented Hotel ZaZa's attention to detail (including the staff's mandarin orange outfits) for the event. Men about town Don Jarred and Jared Pena were spotted chatting with fellow partiers while Owen Wilson slid in by the pool and posed with many star-struck ladies. He also spent time touring the suites. Speculation is that he might check them out as a future guest. The Bachelorette's John Paul Merritt, dressed in a cream sport coat and ripped jeans, made the trek from Oklahoma City for the event. He and his entourage extended their partying at Candle Room into the wee hours.
